

publisher's note

Warmest congratulations.

Charmaine has put her heart and soul into Delicious & Doable, caring about every word, measurement, helpful tip, and mouth-watering photo.

The recipes are fun, creative, and diverse, and will encourage the novice home cook as much as they will captivate the more experienced chef.

Kudos to Charmaine for staying true to herself and her amazing style. She exudes warmth and charm. The affection she has for feeding her family and friends is reflected in every delicious and nourishing bite of each dish she has gifted us here.

Everyone who loves food and cooking—for themselves and others—will discover great joy within these pages.

We're proud to have played a part in bringing this vibrant publication to life.

Wishing you the very best always, Charmaine.
