

Publisher's Note

What a distinct privilege it's been to collaborate with Melanie, to help bring her thoughts and experiences to life on the pages of My Unforeseen Journey: Losing Sight Gaining Vision.

Our creative process was incredibly unique and joyful, and deeply rewarding at every turn. The trust we shared as we explored how best to convey Melanie's story was profound, and the way in which the narrative took shape was equally amazing.

I was humbled and honoured to play a small part in giving voice to Melanie's heart-centred and thought-provoking messages in this beautiful body of work.

I am confident that this is only the beginning of what you can look forward to from this remarkable woman. Melanie is a wonderful example of what is possible when you stay true to yourself, trust the whispers of your heart, and never give up.

Beyond the inspiration you will discover for your own life as you read My Unforeseen Journey, Melanie will lovingly remind you to also pay it forward. And, so it goes.

Warmest congratulations, Melanie. I am so happy for you.

In gratitude,

Sheri Andrunyk
